Ruthless Submarine War Is Test
Of Chancellor's Political Life

BETHMANN-HOLLWEG AND MEMBERS OF THE REICHSTAG

According to reports from London, a great political crisis has been slowly developing in Germany. The pan-Germans before the opening of the reichstag on Sept. 28 have been making every effort, the correspondent says, to overthrow Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg. The Berliner Tageblatt is quoted as saying: "Tension in the atmosphere of imperial politics reached such a high point that a discharge must follow if the empire is not to suffer lasting damage."

Reuter's correspondent says articles in the independent National Correspondenz show that the pan-Germans are fighting for a policy of ruthless submarine war, the chief obstacle to which is the imperial chancellor.

A conference of the Socialists of the German empire has adopted by a vote of 251 to 5 a resolution declaring the country must be defended until its enemies are prepared to conclude a peace guaranteeing the political and territorial integrity of Germany, according to a telegram from Berlin received at Amsterdam and forwarded by the Reuters Telegraph company.

The American government, on the other hand, desires full discussion of all matters pertaining to the American-Mexican situation.

WORLD SERIES OCTOBER 7TH

Winners in Both Big Leagues in Doubt
But Plans Go Forward.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Chicago, September 27. — The world's series will open on Saturday October 7, according to President B. B. Johnson, of the American League. With the race as uncertain as it is, no final action has been taken yet by the National Commission, Mr. Johnson said.

The Chicago White Sox still have a chance in the American League race, but the National League pennant is sure to be won by an eastern team.

Little Evidence in New York That
Strike Was in Progress.

Private Canvasses
Show That 22
Unions Fail to Join the Strikers.

Leaders Claiming
Another 100,000
Workers Will Join
Today or Tomorrow.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, September 27.—Union workers to the number of 125,600 went on strike today in sympathy with the striking traction employees, according to figures given out by representatives of labor unions, but there was little evidence in the city that a strike was in progress.

Private canvassers among the labor unions reported that at least 22 unions had failed to respond to strike calls this forenoon.

The only report received at police headquarters was that 250 members of the painters' union had refused to report for work.

The strike leaders assert that in addition to the numbers that walked out today, they will be able for the next two or three days to call out an additional 100,000 workers each day.

Doubt is expressed that the 45,000 longshoremen, who were expected to strike today, will join the walkout at any time.

It was announced today that the men would not leave work today at any rate.

Big Claims

Strike leaders declared later that 263,000 more men would go out tomorrow. According to the police reports, far less than 125,000 have struck today.

CRUCIAL TEST IN N. Y. STRIKE

Today Is the Day
Set for Walkout—
Claims of Unions
Decrease.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, September 27.—Today is the day set for the general walkout of union men in support of the striking street car workers.

At one time, it was predicted that upward of 600,000 men and women would strike, but leaders of the movement now state that about 200,000 would answer the strike summons today.

Of this number 143,000 are members affiliated with the United Hebrew Trades, who stop work at this time each year for the Jewish holidays.

This fact makes the number who will actually strike a difficult matter to estimate.

N. Y. POLITICS DISCUSSED

President Wilson
Holds Conference
With Samuel Seabury Over Situation in Empire State.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Long Branch, N. J., September 27 Samuel Seabury, Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, held a conference with President Wilson today, after which he expressed the opinion that the Democrats would carry New York this fall as the result of the active campaign that will be carried on there.

Mr. Seabury and the president agreed that it was vital that the Democrats carry the state, the President promised his active co-operation in the campaign, and he may speak in New York.

Plans are being formulated for action to combat the effects of the coming state tour of Charles E. Hughes in New York.

VICTORIOUS ARMY ALLOWS GERMANS NO TIME FOR REST

The Franco-British Forces Follow Up
Successes With Night Fighting.

Smashing Offensive
Maintained Relentlessly.

Between 3000 and
4000 Prisoners
Taken By General
Haig's Army.

(Associated Press Cable.)

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 27.—NO REST IS BEING GIVEN THE GERMANS BY THE VICTORIOUS FRANCO-BRITISH FORCES ON THE SOMME FRONT.

THE BRITISH CAPTURE OF THE LONG RESISTING THIEPVAL STRONGHOLD, FOLLOWING CLOSELY AND UNEXPECTEDLY UPON THE CAPTURE OF COMBLES BY THE COMBINED ALLIED FORCES, WAS ITSELF FOLLOWED UP LAST NIGHT BY A NEW STROKE ON THE PART OF THE FRENCH SOUTH OF THE SOMME, WHERE THEY DROVE THE GERMANS FROM VERMANDOVILLERS AND CAPTURED A STRONGLY FORTIFIED WOOD EAST OF THE TOWN.

The military importance of the gains from Thiepval to the Somme, scored in the smashing offensive of the present week, are expected by military observers at the Entente headquarters to be made manifest by speeding further inroads upon German held territory.

The French advance beyond Bouchavesnes is pointed to as directly threatening Allaines, two miles north of Peronne, and preparing the way for an encircling movement intended to drive the Germans out of Peronne itself.

Belated returns from the British front today announce the capture of between three and four thousand Germans by General Haig's forces in the fighting Monday and Tuesday.

The reported captures by the French bring this total up to more than 6,000.

Sweeping Success

Unofficial figures show the aggregate number of prisoners taken by the Anglo-French armies during the great offensive from July 1 to date have been 60,000, with some 190 square miles of territory and 44 villages.

Bulgars Stiffen

In Macedonia, the Entente forces apparently are meeting with a stiffened Bulgarian resistance, especially west of the Vardar region.

SERBIANS REPULSE BULGAR ATTACKS

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, September 27. — Paris reports Kaimakoalan Height subjected to repeated attacks by Bulgarian forces, but declares the Serbians held to the captured position. Sofia, on the other hand, claims the defeat of the Serbians in that region and says they are in full retreat.

Official reports from Bucharest take back nothing of the claims made by the Roumanians of a notable victory over Field Marshal von Mackensen in Dobrudja last week. The Roumanians and their allies it is declared, defeated heavy forces along the Danube end of the front, and then, while the rest of the line held fast, the Allies broke the resistance of the Bulgarians, Germans and Turks near the Black Sea, and drove them back in disorder.

Greece Wavers

Greece, apparently is on the verge of entering the war on the side of the Entente, King Constantine being now reported to have consented to such action.

The revolutionary movement, however, is continuing; and on the island of Crete, 4,000 Greeks are said to have joined the revolutionary forces.

Labor Leaders Announce Start of General Strike.

WOULD TIE UP NEW YORK

Total of 450,000 Workers in the Various Trades to Be Out by the End of the Week, According to Union Officials—Governor Whitman Opposed to Convening the Legislature, Strike Developments.

New York, Sept. 27.—The movement to tie up all industries in Greater New York was launched today. Union officials announced that approximately 250,000 workers in various trades will quit their places today in aid of the striking streetcar men here. The officials declared that 100,000 workers would strike tomorrow, and another 100,000 Friday, making a total of 450,000 out by the end of the week.

It was asserted that 6,000 brewery workers, 115,000 employees in the building trades and 250,000 members of the United Hebrew trades were in favor of a sympathetic strike. Twelve thousand teamsters also were reported ready to quit work Thursday or Friday.

Mayor Mitchel, whose efforts to settle the differences between the striking car men and the transit companies have failed repeatedly, summoned the labor leaders before him. He said he desired to be informed directly as to what might be expected. The union officials, he announced, told him they expected 200,000 workers to strike, "as a starter."

After a meeting of the joint labor conference committee, strikers were supplied with pamphlets for distribution throughout the city, in which attacks were made on the so-called Morgan and Rockefeller interests.

Members of the state legislature from this city, who called on Governor Whitman and urged him to con-

NATIONAL ARCHERY TOURNAMENT AT JERSEY CITY

For the first time in a generation residents of New York and vicinity recently had an opportunity to see handled by the country's best experts the ancient weapons that laid Achilles low and were the dread of the early American colonists in their wars with the Indians. The thirty-eighth annual tournament of the National Archery association was held at the Hudson county range in Jersey City, N. J., with a goodly representation of both gentlemen and lady archers from all parts of the country.

vene the senate and assembly in an extraordinary session to deal with the strike situation, submitted a draft of a proposed arbitration act. The governor, although opposed to calling the legislature together at this time, said he believed there was "room" for it on the statute books.

The act outlined would provide for a fine of $5,000 and revocation of the license of a corporation that breaks an agreement to arbitrate and a fine against the union breaking such agreement, where the public interest is affected.

ONE DISPOSED OF

(By American Press)

New York, Sept. 27.—William Butler, one of the alleged ringleaders in the million dollar blackmail syndicate, pleaded guilty to impersonating a federal officer and was sentenced to eighteen months in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga.

Butler made no promises to the federal agents regarding giving information on which prosecution of other members of the gang might continue, it was said. Henry Stevenson, Butler's attorney, urged clemency, asserting the fact that he pleaded guilty would make the government's case against others under arrest stronger.

14,000,000 LBS. OF STRAW READY FOR MEAD MILLS

As a result of the great shortage in common white paper, the Mead Pulp & Paper Company, of Chillicothe now has 14,000,000 pounds of ordinary straw ready for manufacture into straw-board and paper.

Two new additions are being constructed to help take care of this great amount of straw, and the volume that continues to pour in each day.

Within a short time the plant will be using more than 20 tons daily in the manufacture of paper and card-board, and it is expected that the several acres of baled straw will then rapidly diminish.

Plans are on foot for the manufacture of a new kind of paper, of a cheaper grade than ordinary news print, or white paper, but which is expected to aid in relieving the shortage in this part of the country.

By mixing the straw pulp with other pulp the company expects to produce a very substantial grade of paper.

Other firms also are preparing to use the same method until the regular amount of pulp can be imported or obtained from other source.

OFFICE BOY NOW MUST BE A CHAUFFEUR TOO

Business Men Send Youths to Drive Cars Around Block.

Philadelphia.—Requirements for office boys have automatically risen with the new ordinance regulating the parking of automobiles in central streets of this city. Advertisements for "Boy Wanted" now conclude with something like this:

"Must be experienced in driving motorcars or willing to learn." Here's the reason:

Suburbanites who drive their cars to their offices in the city in the morning cannot leave the autos parked in the street as they could formerly. In a section of Chestnut street where there are several big office buildings, for example, cars must not be left standing for more than half an hour at a time.

So every half hour the business man sends his office boy to the street to drive his auto around the block. If his office boy isn't a chauffeur the business man goes himself. But this takes valuable time, and, added to the expense of starting up the car and moving it around the block sixteen times a day for six days a week, it costs money.

Hence the demand for office boys who are also chauffeurs.

An Eminent Authority

Mr. Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank of New York, the greatest financial institution in America at the present time, and which, close observers believe, will soon be the most powerful financial concern in the world, was a visitor in Cincinnati on Monday.

Mr. Vanderlip is one of those busy men who always has perfect command of his time and so arranges his schedule of affairs that he can indulge in profitable contemplation and express his opinions, briefly so far as words are concerned, but thoroughly comprehensive on the subject suggested.

Mr. Vanderlip should be, and doubtless is, in close touch with the great world of American business and finance. His individual knowledge of conditions entitles his predictions as to the future to great weight.

It's his business to know conditions and his business to be able to tell what condition the future is likely to produce. He gets paid for that and no one ever stated that Mr. Vanderlip was not worth the salary paid him.

He says business in America is good now and is going to remain good for several years, no matter when the war in Europe comes to an end.

Conditions are such, according to the eminent New York financier, that the end of the war in Europe will not cause our prosperous era to come to a close.

Mr. Vanderlip's assurances should go far to allay the fears of the timid ones and silencing those who go up and down the land loudly asserting that financial disaster and business paralysis is certain to overtake us as soon as the war in Europe ends.

The Chicago Blackmailers

The wholesale arrests made by federal officials in Chicago a few days ago disclosed the ugly fact that in the second city of the nation a well organized band of blackmailers carried on their career of crime with flagrant disregard of consequences.

Evidence, included confessions of some of the ring leaders of the gang and stories of some of the victims, in the possession of government officials stamps the gang as made up of the shrewdest, the boldest and the most heartless criminals, men and women, that have been rounded up in a decade.

There are some people today prosperous and law abiding, jealous of a deservedly good reputation built up in the business and social circles in which they move, who would willingly part with money to keep some secret of their earlier life from becoming public.

There are many timid people whose whole life has been above reproach, but who, nevertheless, would pay almost any sum of money to avoid publicity. Unapprehended the blackmailer has "easy picking."

He extorts from the weak his toll, for withholding exposure of guilt or to avoid publicity. A human parasite who would, if unrestrained, prey upon society and destroy it utterly. That's the reason the law has made blackmailing a crime—a felony severely to be punished.

The disclosures in Chicago are appalling in the immensity of the crimes committed, and the federal authorities will spare no effort to bring every member of the band to justice.

Fabulously prosperous for a while, the end of the Chicago gang was the same as that which almost invariably comes to criminals.

Almost a Wish

The ideal days of that season when the summer is just merging with autumn are the most beautiful and thoroughly enjoyable of the year and those days were never more beautiful nor more numerous than they are this year.

Sometimes we are almost compelled, so great is our appreciation of the splendor of it all, to wish that we could have the same kind of weather all winter.

But a host of memories of Thanksgiving time, the Christmas season, with the turkeys, the mince pies, the pumpkin pies, the cider and nuts, the apples and the evenings by the warm fireside, the white snow and the bracing cold of the clear still winter days, drive all such wishes away as impractical and really something that we do not desire after all.

Nature has a marvelous schedule arranged for man's good and man's pleasure. Sometimes when it crosses a little with our arrangements we get a little peevish and think it could be improved on.

Nature has, with generous late showers, kept the foliage green and bright for these delightful days. Later on the fingers of frost will tint the foliage with the browns, the reds and the yellows.

We have yet to come, if the old schedule runs along smoothly, our squaw winter and our Indian summer, one a forerunner and a warning of what is to come and the latter the last, for this year at least, of what has been.

Poetry For Today

FIELD FLOWERS.

Ye field flowers! the gardens eclipse you, 'tis true,
Yet, wildings of nature, I dote upon you.
For ye waft me to summer's of old.
When the earth teemed around me with fairy delight,
And when daisies and buttercups gladdened my sight.
Like treasurers of silver and gold.

I love you for lulling me back into dreams
Of the blue highland mountains and echoing streams,
And of birchen glades breathing their balm,
While the deer were seen glancing in sunshine remote,
And the deep mellow crush of the wood pigeon's note
Made music that sweetened the calm.

Not a pastoral song has a pleasanter tune
Than ye speak to my heart, little wildings of June;
Of Old ruinous castles ye tell,
Where I thought it delightful your beauties to find
When the magic of nature first breathed on my mind,
And your blossoms were part of her spell.

Even now what affections the violet awakes;
What loved little islands, twice seen in their lakes,
Can the wild water lily restore;
What landscapes I read in the primrose's looks,
And what pictures of pebbled and minnowy brooks
In the vetches that tangled their shores.

—Thomas Campbell.

DEFENDS SIDEWALK SKATING.

Montclair Champion Says It Helps Children's Morals.

Montclair.—The controversy in this town over the use of the sidewalks, which was started when Mrs. John Haynes Lord protested to the authorities because children were allowed to use them for roller skating, bids fair to become a community issue.

Mrs. Lord, who was injured by being run down by a bicyclist on a sidewalk a few years ago, has many supporters. Her attitude, however, is resented by others, chief among whom is Arthur P. Heyer, who was a candidate for town commissioner at the last election.

Mr. Heyer came out with another broadside. He believes that the streets could be made the greatest educational asset of any community if the people would look at the matter in the right way. He says skating in the open air makes children moral.

FINE HOME TO SON

W. Averill Harriman Receives From Mother Ideal Estate.

IS VALUED AT $5,000,000.

Arden House, Built on a Mountain Summit and Overlooking Surrounding Landscape For Many Miles, Represented E. H. Harriman's Idea of What Country Home Should Be.

New York.—In consideration of "love and affection" Mrs. E. H. Harriman has transferred to her son, William Averill Harriman, the Harriman home, Arden House, overlooking the Ramapo valley, just back of Arden, which was planned by the financier at the time of his death.

William Averill Harriman, or W. Averill Harriman, as he is often known, is the eldest son of the late E. H. Harriman. He was graduated from

MRS. HARRIMAN AND HER SON.

Yale in 1913 and married Miss Kitty Lanier Lawrence of Lenox, Mass., Sept. 21, 1915.

Mr. Harriman is twenty-four years old. Since his marriage he and his wife have occupied a wing in Arden House which was added for their occupancy.

Arden House, which is built on a mountain summit and overlooks the surrounding country for a great many miles on the western threshold of the Hudson highlands, is said to have represented E. H. Harriman's ideal of what a country home should be.

Mr. Harriman himself took an active interest in the planning of the house and of the 2,500 acres of park which surround it. At the time of his death it was uncompleted, but all final work was done according to the plans which he had made.

The total cost of the house and the grounds is estimated to have been more than $5,000,000.

SPORTSMEN PLAN TO WIPE OUT THE ENGLISH SPARROW

Will Ask Governor of Every State to Aid In Work.

New York.—The League of American Sportsmen, whose object is the preservation of wild life, is considering the question of inaugurating a nation wide campaign for the destruction of the English sparrow. Its officials say this bird has made such headway here that it is driving out the smaller song and insectivorous birds and that it has become a question of whether we will have only the English sparrow to represent our bird life or destroy it and regain some fifty species of useful and beautiful birds that used to inhabit farms and countryside all over the land.

The league intends to issue a proclamation declaring war on the English sparrow and setting aside a week, possibly in April or May of next year, to be devoted especially to waging it. The governor of every state will be asked to aid the work. Printed instructions as to the plan of the campaign will be sent to the mayors of all incorporated cities and villages, to the heads of the school systems in every county, to college presidents, to principals of preparatory schools, to the heads of the boy scouts in each state and to other organizations which might be expected to extend sympathy and aid.

Four principal methods of action will be employed: Tearing down the nests, trapping the birds, shooting them under police supervision and under licenses issued by the police authorities, and, in cities where water pressure is available, turning the hose on the birds at night after they have gone to roost.

WOULD ALTER "DIXIE."

Music Teachers Want "Star Spangled Banner" Changed Also.

New York.—At a conference of high school music teachers a committee was appointed to ask music publishers and the public school teachers to eliminate negro dialect from songs printed in the textbooks. Dr. Frank R. Rix, musical director of the education department, who was present at the conference, said:

"My suggestions for these changes were made some time ago by me to the board of superintendents, but they were shelved, and I do not know what has become of them. The reasons for changing the dinky dialect should appeal to any interested person. We want our children to learn pure English, not a dialect. Then also there are many foreign children in our schools. The number is growing constantly.

YEGGS CRACK STORE SAFE AND ESCAPE

W. H. Chamberlain Store in Milledgeville Visited By Professional Yeggs Who Get $45 in Money and $50 Worth of Jewelry—Safe Badly Shattered.

About one o'clock Wednesday morning professional yeggs cracked a large safe in the general store of W. H. Chamberlain, in Milledgeville, and escaped with $45 in money and $50 worth of watches and other jewelry, including a couple of lavellers.

The yeggs had forced a car in which railroad tools were kept, and with the aid of the tools smashed a window and entered the store from the rear. Once inside they proceeded with their work in a systematic manner, obtaining soap and plastering the crack about the door of the safe, and then poured in the "soup" (nitroglycerine) after which they used material to deaden the explosion, and set off the charge.

The door was shattered and the safe rendered worthless. It was the work of only a few moments to seize the money and jewelry and leave the store by the broken window.

It was evident that the men, two or three in number, had left an automobile near the place and once in the machine they made a hurried get-away, leaving no clew behind that would aid the authorities.

Mr. Chamberlain discovered the work about four o'clock, and promptly reported to Sheriff Jones, who went at once to the scene but could not locate a clew that would aid in trailing the thieves. However, he obtained the numbers of the watches and description of the jewelry, and immediately notified all surrounding towns and cities to be on the lookout. Several strangers had been about the place during the past few days.

Persons residing near the store heard the explosion but did not believe it of sufficient force to be a safe cracking job, and so paid no attention to it.

The door of the safe, showing the powerful explosive used to hurl it from the safe, was brought to this city by Sheriff Jones, and later placed on exhibition in Craig Bros. show window, where it has been attracting a great deal of attention.

Several citizens in Washington report having seen an unlighted automobile pass through this city at a rapid rate of speed about three o'clock Wednesday morning.

STEAL COAL AND GET HEAVY FINE

Albert Riley and Mark Row, of this city, were taken before Mayor Oster Wednesday morning to answer to charges filed against them by D. T. & I. Detective N. J. Fisher who had caught the two men in the act of removing some 1500 pounds of coal from Freight No. 54, Tuesday night about eight o'clock.

The men entered pleas of guilty and each was fined $55 and the costs and $50 of each fine was suspended upon promise of both men to not repeat the offense, and the payment of $5 and the costs.

Some of the coal on the freight was interstate shipment, but it was not known for a certainty that the coal thrown off was from the interstate shipment. When caught stealing interstate coal thieves are turned over to the Federal authorities. Sometime ago five men, who had stolen from an interstate shipment on the D. T. & I. were sent to Leavenworth for their offense.

PARTITION SUIT IS FILED TODAY

In common pleas court a suit in partition was filed Wednesday morning by Constance Vannorsdall and Marie Marine, only children and heirs at law of the late Sarena Hendrickson Tobin, and granddaughter and devisees under the last will and testament of David Garringer, deceased.

The defendants are Stephen and Stella Hendrickson, Lairey and Geo. Loney, John and Ella Hendrickson, David A. Hendrickson, Dora Egan Faust, Glenn Vannorsdall and Chas. C. Marine, heirs and Baughn and Connor, W. H. Chamberlain and Urban C. Tobin who claim liens on the property. These latter are asked to set up their claims.

Maddox & Maddox represent the plaintiffs.

CHARGED WITH KEEPING PLACE

State Liquor License Commission Inspector John Pennesten, was in this city Wednesday, collecting samples of cider being dispensed here, with a view to having an analysis made to ascertain if the cider has been "spiked," and while here filed an affidavit against John Elder charging him with keeping a place where intoxicants were sold from August 15th to September 27th.

The charge against Elder grew out of a recent visit of the detectives to his place of business and the purchase of a quart of "hard" cider.

The cider was analyzed and, according to Pennesten, showed nearly nine per cent of alcohol, or enough to cause intoxication.

Elder was out of the city and his arrest had not been made up to Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

Elder, it will be remembered, was recently arrested on a somewhat similar charge, but the evidence was contradictory and his case was dismissed for lack of evidence.

LAYING PLATFORM AT UNION STATION

Workmen are now engaged in the work of laying a plank platform between the C. H. & D. and D. T. & I. tracks at the Union Station, together with four plank cross-overs from the main platform across the tracks to the new plank platform, so that passengers will find it much more convenient in reaching the C. H. & D. trains at that point.

The platform will be constructed for a considerable length so that it will accommodate all passengers leaving or boarding the trains.

Work on the new driveway is progressing very satisfactorily.

CORN CUTTING IS PROGRESSING

With every available man using the corn knife, at the present time, rapid headway is being made toward placing the corn in the shock.

Not only is corn cutting well under way, but wheat sowing has been started, and a large acreage of wheat will be sown in Fayette county.

Thousands of acres of corn will be left standing in the fields owing to the abundant hay crop and the high price demanded for cutting corn.

CAR INSPECTOR BADLY INJURED

While using a lever on a gondola car in the Pennsylvania railroad yards, about 7:30 Wednesday morning, M. Lester Brown, car inspector was very badly injured when the lever struck him.

He sustained a fractured collar bone, large bruise across the side of his head and a bruised hand.

It was at first believed that his condition was serious, but he rallied and was removed to his home on High street. Speedy recovery is anticipated.

SERIOUSLY INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Friends here will regret to learn that Mrs. P. C. Michiel, residing northwest of Marysville, is suffering from serious injuries received in a recent accident.

Both bones in one leg were broken and minor injuries sustained.

Mrs. Michiel is a sister of Mrs. William Thornton, Mrs. Elon Thornton and Mrs. Noah Baughn. Mrs. Baughn is now with her sister.

CLERK ISSUES 69 HUNTERS' LICENSE

Clerk of Courts E. W. Darflinger has issued 69 hunters' license this year, most of the license being taken out during the past few weeks so that the hunters might have a try at squirrels.

The heavy demand for license usually occurs about three days prior to the opening of the rabbit hunting season, and several score license usually are issued at that time.

REPAIRS MADE ON MOTOR FIRE TRUCK

After several days work on the new motor fire truck, at $7 per. the specialist from Cincinnati once more got the big truck in running order Wednesday afternoon, and tested the truck out to see that it worked properly.

The expert from Cincinnati was assisted by the three firemen, and all got a good look at the interior workings of the big truck.

While responding to a fire call the latter part of last week the cam-shaft snapped, rendering the truck useless.

$100 AND COSTS AGREES TO PROVIDE

Sherman Dixon, arrested in Xenia last week and held in the county jail in this city, after a hearing before Justice T. N. Craig was fined $100 and the costs and ordered committed to the work house until the full amount is paid.

However, upon Dixon's agreement to provide for his family, was allowed to depart, the fine being suspended as long as he provides for his family as agreed to.

MUCH SWITCHING, AND ALL RECORDS BROKEN

All records have been broken in this city, during the past few days, in the amount of freight handled at this point, and Tuesday the switch engine here was kept in constant use 16 hours to handle the congestion, and then all of it was not taken care of.

All roads have had a phenomenal business and it is hustling the various roads to handle the big movement of freight.

STEEPLE JACKS AT WORK ON CHURCH

Two steeple jacks are at work on the spire of the Presbyterian Church and have the task of straightening the spire, which was thrown out of plumb by the windstorm in July, 1915, and has been in a somewhat dangerous condition of late.

Not only will the two men straighten the steeple but they will apply a new coat of paint to the almost inaccessible parts of the spire.

WILSON POPULAR

A straw vote was taken at the P. Hagerty Shoe Company's big plant in Millwood, Wednesday morning, and a canvass of the 63 votes cast showed 57 for Wilson and 6 for Hughes.

The vote included all men past 21 who are employed at the plant.

SPLENDID SPECIMEN

In the Commercial Bank a large cotton plant, containing 65 bolls, or pods, from which the cotton grows, is on exhibition, and attracting quite a little interest.

The plant was sent to Attorney Troy T. Junk, by his father-in-law, of Oxford, O., who owns a large cotton plantation at Blytheville, Ark.

The plant is an unusually fine specimen.

CREAM OF RICE

Is a new product that is just being introduced here. It is not only a breakfast food but may be made into pancakes, mush, muffins, cookies and used in over a hundred different ways. It is made of uncooked rice ground and mixed with powdered milk. It has not the ordinary taste of rice, but has a distinctive taste of its own and can be prepared in five minutes. In cell-building value it is the equal of the finest cuts of meat. Dr. Tandler of Wisconsin says: "Make rice the standard food of the people and it will have more effect in preventing the great White Plague than all of the medicines and sanitariums in the world."

It is most nutritious, easily assimilated and eliminated, and is the only cereal that contains all elements of building body tissue.

It will cut the high cost of living as one 15c package will produce 8 pounds of food. It serves as a vegetable, a desert and a bread. In its different uses it may be eaten three times a day every day in the year.

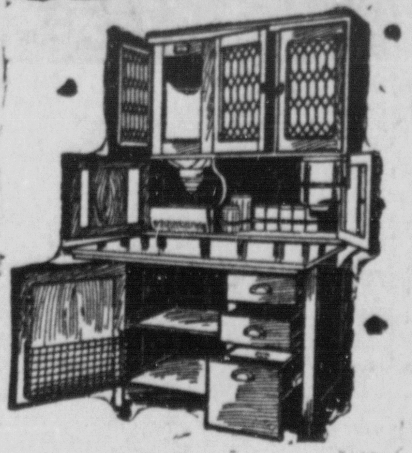

Notice our window display of Cream of Rice and add a package to your next order. Price 15c per box.

Quality and Service

In selling certain lines of goods price may be used as a strong selling point.

But in selling drugs the first argument should always be QUALITY.

RIGHT QUALITY has made our business what it is, and we always expect to maintain the reputation it has won for us.

The fact that we have an unusually complete stock of Quality Goods is an evidence that we are prepared to serve you in a superior manner. Completeness of stock is quite apt to mean that care is exercised in buying and in every detail of management. ## KEEPS FISH FROM DROWNING.

Captain Kintz Would Get Medal if Perch Had a Carnegie.

New York. — Captain Frank Kintz, master in the Taylor tugboat fleet of this city, recently became a fish life saver. Aboard the tug Captain Toby, Captain Kintz was in Ocoquan with a tow from this city. A yellow perch a boy had caught had been left dangling on a string in the water until it was almost dead, not having strength enough to hold itself below the surface.

Captain Kintz saw the fish and also his opportunity to save life even if it was only that of a fish, and a bony yellow perch at that. Reasoning that if it was water that drowned a human being it must be air that drowned a fish, Captain Kintz proceeded to apply first aid and help the fish to get rid of the air. Holding it down in the water, he gently rubbed its sides, and bubbles of air rolled to the surface. About fifteen minutes of this manipulation were necessary, and the perch revived and with a flit of its tail swam rapidly away. If there was a Carnegie among the fish Captain Kintz would surely be awarded a medal as a fish life saver.

Seeks Shaving Soap; Finds Brother. St. Paul, Minn. — Charles McKee of Ray, N. D., was stopping in a hotel in this city. Wishing to shave, but having no soap, he went into the next room to try to borrow a shaving stick. The occupant of the room proved to be his brother, from whom he had not heard in thirteen years.

GOOD REHEARSAL FORECASTS SUCCESS

The full rehearsal for "The Runaways," the home talent musical comedy to be given Thursday and Friday nights for the benefit of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, passed off splendidly Wednesday night at the Empire Theater and the few privileged guests were enthusiastic in praise thereof.

The music is very tuneful and the songs and dances beautiful. Mortimer (Teck) Clagens and Miss Dorothy Saxton as the "Runaways" are in the real professional class and W. B. (Billy) Rogers in the role of stern parent is proving himself a born comedian who alone would be worth the admission price.

George Hitchcock is also revealing undreamed of histrionic ability and Miss Jane Paul and Howard Gregg are side splitting in their team work.

Miss Ada Woodward has a leading part, her solo dance with the butterflies one of the prettiest specialties of the play.

The "Charlie Chaplin" and "Kid Days" feature acts and dances are two of the hits of the comedy.

It is expected that the seat sale of Thursday morning will be immense.

In "The Charlie Chaplin Walk," in which Beota Haines will be assisted by ten girls garbed as the redoubtable screen star. Little Misses Jean Worthington and Katherine Miller also appear in this specialty. In "Back to Dixie Land" Maxine Kibler appears in a rollicking dancing number accompanied by 24 girls in quaint "Yama-yama" costumes.

London, Sept. 27.—The village of Combles has fallen into the hands of the Anglo-French forces.

It was the pivotal point in the German line guarding the approach to Bapaume on the north, and Peronne on the south, of the Somme front.

The allied troops swept in from three sides after their capture of Morval and Fregicourt, broke through the German defenses, overran the town and carried all before them. At the end of the fighting the town was filled with the bodies of Germans who had fallen fighting, the French official statement says.

Both Thiepval, at the northwestern end of the British line, and the fortified town of Gueudecourt, northwest of Lesboeufs, also have fallen into the hands of the British. General Sir Douglas Haig's men, after capturing Thiepval, drove on eastward and took the Zollern redoubt, a strongly fortified position, which lies between Thiepval and the bend in the British line at Courcellette.

The French likewise advanced beyond Fregicourt and captured the wood between that village and Morval and the greater part of the German fortified positions lying between this wood eastward across the Bethune road to the western portion of the St. Vaast wood, nipping off another portion of the German line of communication to the south from Bapaume.

The German casualties in the fighting are declared by Paris to have been heavy, and, in addition, during the two days' fighting more than 1,200 Germans were made prisoner by the French, while the British took in excess of 1,500. Large quantities of booty, including machine guns, were taken by the entente allies.

Both Berlin and Vienna tell of the repulse of strong Russian attacks in Volhynia, Galicia and the Carpathian mountain region.

On the Roumanian front the Austrians and Germans have been compelled to evacuate the Vulcan and Szurdok passes of the Transylvanian Alps, in order to avoid an extensive encircling movement started by the Roumanians.

Sofia reports the capture of the Amzerech-Pervels line in Dobrudja from the Russians and Roumanians, who retired northward.

STILL KNOCKING

(By American Press)

Cleveland, Sept. 27.—Charles M. Hughes challenged the administration to deny his charge that John Lind was authorized by President Wilson in 1914 to say to "the minister from a foreign power to Mexico" that Huerta would be "put out" of the presidency of Mexico if he did not voluntarily get out.

Mr. Hughes issued his challenge in a speech here last night before an audience in Central armory. In the same speech Mr. Hughes lauded Myron T. Herrick, sitting on the platform with him, for the manner in which he discharged the duties of ambassador to France in the early days of the war, and declared that the appointment of a man to succeed Mr. Herrick "in a time of great emergency" would "ever remain a blot upon the present administration."

The nominee's speech here was the last of eight delivered on the second day of his campaign through Ohio. Among them was an address at Toledo before employees of a large automobile plant, during which a number of the workmen he addressed cheered repeatedly, for Wilson. This meeting closed with a volley of questions from the edge of the crowd, prompted by his attack on the administration for the Adamson law, and by uncompromising references to the nominee himself.

The photograph, made recently near the Somme, shows French gunners setting a shell of 155 millimeters. The men, equipped with gas masks, are in a very dangerous section, as may be seen by the brace-

PRESENT ACTS INADEQUATE

Carranza Members of Border Commission Would Discourage Americans From Participating in Mexican Factional Conflicts—Violations of Neutrality Shown On Each Side of the International Line.

New London, Conn., Sept. 27.—Revision of American neutrality laws, with a view to discouraging Americans from participation in Mexican factional conflicts, was suggested by Mexican delegates at the conference of the Mexican joint commission here.

It was indicated that Mexico would be able to deal more effectively with rebels and ordinary bands of outlaws if the neutrality laws were amended in such manner as to make it an offense for an American citizen to participate in any way in a movement against a government with which the United States is at peace.

The discussion of the neutrality laws of both countries was incident to consideration of suggested plans for the co-operation of the authorities of both countries in maintaining peace along the border. The Mexicans charged that the inadequacy of the American laws made possible the propagation of conspiracies on American soil against established order in Mexico.

The consideration of the operation of neutrality laws was not confined to those of the United States, however. The American representatives, since the beginning of the conference, have held to the argument that Mexico should so govern the frontier as to make unnecessary the presence of an American army on the south side of the boundary line, and attention was directed to the cases in which the Mexican neutrality laws or their enforcement was at fault.

The American commissioners submitted a list of border raids that had been compiled by the war department. The Mexican commissioners countered by the presentation of another list specifying instances where American soldiers or civilians had crossed the boundary into Mexico. This list also contained instances where Mexican Nationals were said to have lost their lives and property on American soil.

(By American Press)

New York, Sept. 27.—Edward A. Leet, forty-two, an inventor, accused by Edward Lauterbach, a well known lawyer, of having extorted about $100,000 from him during the last eighteen years, pleaded guilty to the indictment against him. He will be sentenced Oct. 3. The maximum penalty for the crime is fifteen years.

Lauterbach went before the grand jury and said that for nearly two decades he had been victimized by Leet and his wife, who demanded huge sums, asserting that the lawyer was under "moral obligations." The Leets, it is alleged, came here from Scranton, Pa., eighteen years ago with a letter of introduction to Lauterbach. They were in financial straits and the lawyer helped them. Lauterbach called on them frequently and then Leet began making his demands.

Columbus, Sept. 27.—Fifty members of Company B, Ninth battalion (colored), Ohio national guard, were ordered to fight the onion-bed fires at McGuffey, near Kenton. On account of a brisk wind prevailing there the fire was reported to be worse than ever, with smoke making the salvage work almost impossible. The mine rescue car of the state industrial commission, accompanied by Chief Mine Inspector J. H. Pritchard and a corps of workmen, also left for the scene. The guardsmen were ordered to take along mess outfits to feed the several hundred men, and also picks, shovels and other working implements.

MANY FARMERS ATTEND MEETING

Farm Loan Board Holds Session at Columbus.

Columbus, Sept. 27.—Several hundred farmers today attended the hearing at the Hartman theater here before the federal farm loan board to determine the location in the district of one of the twelve farm loan banks which will be the nucleus of the new rural credits system. A large number of bankers and business men also were present. Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo and Canton, candidates for the bank, had large delegations to urge claims of each town.

The federal farm loan board, composed of Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo, Charles E. Ladd, Captain W. S. A. Smith, Herbert Quick and George W. Norris, arrived this morning from Louisville. A luncheon was tendered the members of the board at the Desher hotel at noon.

The new farm loan act will make the agricultural prosperity of the United States uniform and bring direct or indirect benefits to all the farmers of the United States, according to Mr. Quick of the board. The farm prosperity of the country has been spotted, he says. In the regions where land values are high, private interests have loaned money at reasonable rates. But, in less favored regions, exorbitant rates have been charged, and Mr. Quick predicts that not only will the weak spots be built up, but even the favored spots will get the benefits of more advantageous loans.

AIR RAIDS WRECK VENICE

Deputies Go to Rome and Urge Adequate Defense.

Rome, Sept. 27.—Professor A. Fradeletto, deputy from Venice to the Italian parliament, has just arrived here with a committee of Venetian leaders to submit to Premier Boselli a number of measures destined to relieve the economic distress in which the city is struggling, and also to urge General Morone, minister of war, to perfect the defense of Venice in order to prevent further air raids. He declared that only the employment of the most effective means of defense will save Venice from utter destruction.

"It will be a repetition of the story of Louvain, Rheims and Arras," Deputy Fradeletto said. "Judging by what has already happened, the city is doomed to destruction. Naturally the world at large knows very little about the extent of damage already inflicted on the city, as the official communiques are not supposed to give details. But the fact is that if the war continues another year and the Austrians keep up their indiscriminate bombardment of the city at the present pace there will soon be but very little left in Venice worth seeing."

"If St. Mark's is still intact it is not the Austrians' fault. Probably there is either an angel or a saint who shields the cathedral, whose marble and mosaic still tell the story of the old, Christian republic. But how long will it remain undamaged? As the hope of retaking Gorizia vanishes the Austrians will renew their attacks against the city. They warned us in advance. On two different occasions the enemy planes dropped handbills warning us that if we took Gorizia they would raze our city. Several raids were made recently."

"Owing to its geographic position, Venice, beside being a huge open-air museum, is also a naval base. This justifies the air raids; but the buildings that up to date have most suffered from the air bombardments are those which have no military value whatever."

SYNOPSIS.

Pierpont Stafford, banker and railroad magnate, with his sixteen-year-old daughter, Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach. Gloria is a vivacious but willful young lady who chafes under the restraining hand of a governess from whom she repeatedly escapes. Her childish capers cause young Doctor Royce to fall in love with her. She steals from her room at night and in an auto plunges into the surf where she leaves the car. Becoming lost in the everglades she falls into the hands of the Seminole Indians. She is rescued and returned to her father who had offered a reward for her return. Gloria falls in love with her rescuer, Freneau. Five years later she leaves school and meets Freneau at the theater; his attention having been occupied with her sister-in-law he has forgotten Gloria. Gloria feels that her one dream is shattered. Later Freneau persuades her to forgive him. Gloria's sister-in-law, Lois, becomes intensely jealous and Doctor Royce discovers in her an ally to assist in thwarting Freneau. Doctor Royce warns Freneau that there is another woman besides Gloria; Freneau goes sleighing with Gloria without her father's knowledge. It results in pneumonia for Gloria, whose family becomes incensed at Freneau when they learn the truth. Royce is summoned to alleviate Gloria's suffering. Freneau's finances being low he approaches Pierpont Stafford for a loan. Doctor Royce again warns Freneau of his conduct. But Lois, learning of Freneau's betrothal to Gloria, threatens him with dire punishment. Her husband, Gloria's brother David, becomes suspicious; he plans a trap for his wife. Freneau driven to desperation by Lois' threats agrees to spend a week with her in the Catskills. He plans to have Mulry send Gloria a bunch of telegrams. Lois' husband threatens to kill a man. After Freneau takes leave of Gloria she sees him when he goes to meet Lois. Doctor Royce convinces her that what she has seen is the result of delirium. Later a telegram, followed by a letter, comes from Freneau. She replies, but her telegrams are returned. The first morning she is allowed from her room, she accidentally sees the supposed suicide of Freneau reported in the paper.

Gloria patted Burroughs on the shoulder tenderly. "Yes, that will have to do," she murmured sorrowfully, and she let the maid dress her.

Then she went slowly down the stairway. Her father met her and they entered the dining room together. The table, laden with its lace and silver, was alight with candles; the butler was waiting; a man stood behind each chair. Seating themselves, Pierpont took up his cocktail glass and lifted it to drink to Gloria, who picked up her own glass with a faraway look. Suddenly, it was as if Freneau stood beside her. She imagined he was putting his cheek close to hers to sip from the same brim. So vividly did she feel his presence that she gave a startled gasp and put down her glass. Her father half rose: "What is it, honey? You look as pale as a ghost."

Gloria shivered at the word "ghost," but summoned a smile to reassure him. "It's nothing, dad. I'll be all right in a minute." And raising her glass again, she put it to her lips.

The butler at the serving table handed the soup plates to the second man, who conveyed them to Gloria's side.

A Helpful Confession

Mrs. B. writes: "Had suffered for years with stomach disorder. Could not eat without great distress, lost weight and was run down. Feared it was ulcerated stomach.

"Fortunately I secured a sample of HEMO, which seemed to satisfy my hunger, and was retained without distress. I immediately bought a package and started to take it regularly. I continued to take it once a day and improved steadily. After one year I have gained 33 pounds of good solid flesh and can eat any food with no distress. I can recommend HEMO to all sufferers from stomach or digestive disorders."

but food was distasteful to her, and, dropping into a reverie again, she seemed to see Freneau as she had so often seen him, enter the room and greet her.

Again the vision became almost real; it was as if he put his arms about her and embraced her, then her eyes fell to her left hand, which their engagement ring had adorned, and its nakedness rebuked her. She seemed to see the look of anguish and reproach on Freneau's face as he took account of its absence.

She put her hands before her face. Pierpont looked up anxiously, then went to her side. She shivered with a chill. "I'm sorry, daddy, to spoil your dinner. Please let me go to my room. I'll pull myself together after a bit. It's just a fit of nerves. No, don't come with me; I'm all right. Finish your dinner, dear; don't mind at all. I'll be all right."

She dragged herself wearily away from him and on up to her own room. She threw herself down upon the bed moaning: "They've even taken your ring from me. O Dick, Dick, come back and help me."

GIRL INJURED

A few days ago a ten-year-old girl named Edna Justice, of Washington, C. H., had a narrow escape from being killed at Newport by an auto striking her. The child had stepped off to the side of the street to let a machine pass when another from the opposite direction struck her. She was thrown between the wheels and strange to say, the only injury the little girl received was a gash in the forehead, by the fender striking her. The driver was not going fast at the time. He picked the injured child up and called Dr. Strain. No blame is attached to the driver and he agreed to settle for surgical aid.—London Democrat.

LABORER HEIR TO $1,500,000.

"I Don't Know What I Will Do With It," Says Septuagenarian.
New Kensington, Pa.—Called from the plant of the Braeburn Steel company, where he was employed as a laborer at 25 cents an hour, Thomas Conlin, seventy years old, was told he had fallen heir to $1,500,000. The old man was staggered by the news and quit work for the day. "I don't know what I'll do with it," he said.

Thomas and Frank Conlin came to America from Ireland thirty years ago. For five years they worked together with little success; then Frank said he was going to Australia. Later it was reported he was making a fair living in the gold fields. Thomas has a son.

MARSH FIRE AGAIN RAGES

Onion Beds in Hardin County Again Ablaze and Beyond Control.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Kenton, Ohio, September 27.—The onion marsh fire at McGuffey is beyond control again and spreading rapidly today.

The town itself is in no immediate danger, a strong northeast wind having turned the flames today.

The fire is moving south and is a quarter of a mile from the village limits.

Brigades of fire fighters were driven back yesterday by the smoke and were forced to abandon lines of ditches on which they were working.

More than 100 men again attacked the fire last night, and are preparing a new trench in advance of the flames.

Under Control

State officials today expressed the belief that the big onion-bed fire at McGuffey and vicinity was under control, and that it would not be necessary to send any more troops or other state aid there to co-operate with local authorities in fighting the fire.

Pigeons War Messengers.

Washington.—The god of war has taken even the dove of peace and harnessed it to do his bidding. Perhaps not exactly the dove, but its next kin, the pigeon. Homing pigeons, for use in campaign work, have been adopted by the armies in the European conflict and have now become a part of Uncle Sam's military establishment. The birds are now being used on the southern frontier, and army officers along the Rio Grande say these kins-fellows of the bird of peace will soon be doing yeoman service.

SEPARATE VOTE FOR ELECTORS

By a Decision of the Supreme Court Today Voters May Vote for Different Electors.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, Ohio, September 27.—By a decision of the Supreme Court today, Ohio voters will be permitted to vote for some of the presidential electors of each party.

A test case to decide this question was carried to the Supreme Court yesterday by Attorney General Turner.

The case was friendly and was in the form of a mandamus suit to compel Secretary of State Hildebrandt to have on the ballot for the November election printed in a small square the name of each candidate for presidential elector.

Had the little squares been eliminated, voters would have had to vote a straight ticket for electors.

The court decided in favor of the Attorney General's contention.

TEN THOUSAND TO COME HOME

Instructions were sent to General Funston ordering him to select, upon the arrival of these organizations at the border, 10,000 National Guard infantry now on duty there and return them to state mobilization camps.

DECREASE

(Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, September 27.—Today's infantile paralysis report shows new cases, 26; deaths, 5; a decrease of 6 from the number of deaths of yesterday.

WAR GAS PERILS NOT CONFINED TO MEN WHO FACE DEADLY FUMES AT FRONT

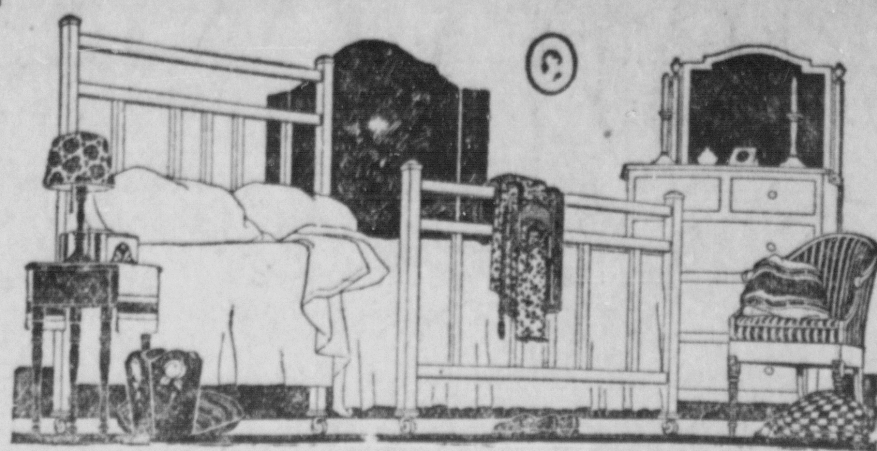

AMMUNITION WORKERS FACE WAR DANGERS

Our picture shows a young Frenchwoman whose dangerous work is that of filling the deadly melinite shells. She is forced to wear a gas mask to protect her from the death giving fumes. Aside from the fact that she is part of the gigantic war machinery of France a bit of sentiment finds expression in the flowers which she wears pinned to her working dress. They were given to her by a "poilu" who had just left for the front. In all of the principal countries at war women have taken places of men, thus releasing the latter for more arduous duty at the front.

ESCAPED CONVICT IS RECAPTURED

Ed Williams Is Captured at West Union, W. Va.

FARM BANKS MUCH SOUGHT

Loan Board Holds Hearings in Columbus Theater Building.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, Ohio, September 27.—Representatives of Ohio cities and towns appeared today before the Federal Farm Loan Board here to ask that one of the dozen federal farm loan banks be established in various parts of the country be located in their municipalities. The hearings were held in a theater.

The first session was confined to a resume of federal conditions existing in Ohio by M. E. Thrallkill, of Columbus.

Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo and Canton are seeking the bank.

Molly, the new girl, was one of those heavy handed creatures who was forever dropping or breaking things. Hearing a crash of glassware one morning, her mistress called in a resigned voice from the next room: "Well, Mollie, what are you doing now?"

"I ain't doin' nothin', mum. It's done," replied the treasure.

Dean Swift and the Cook.

There is a good story about Dean Swift, apropos of the value of never overdoing anything. The dean's cook one day overroasted the leg of mutton for dinner, and in consequence she was summoned to the dining room. "Cook," said the dean in a pleasant voice, "this leg of mutton is overdone. Take it back and do it less."

"Impossible, your reverence!" exclaimed the cook.

"Well," replied her master, "supposing it had been underdone, you could easily have done it more."

"Certainly, your reverence."

"Then," said the dean, "let this be a lesson to you. If you commit a fault always take care that it is a fault which will admit of a remedy."
